

LACONI YSS General Meeting

April 26, 2013

Every Child Ready to Read 2nd Edition Presented by Saroj Ghoting Schaumburg Township District Library

At 9:50, President Dee Delaney called the meeting to order. Dee introduced current board members and read the LACONI YSS mission statement. The 2013-2014 slate of officers was presented and voted on by the membership. Vice President Lindsey Dorfman shared information about the September 27 STEM program to be held at Addison Public Library and the November 15 Common Core program.

Secretary's Report

Secretary's Report was read and filed.

Treasurer's Report

Treasurer's Report was read and filed.

The business meeting concluded at 10:04.

Saroj Ghoting presented a modified version of her Every Child Ready to Read 2nd Edition. This included background information on the differences between the first and second editions. She also explained the components of language and early literacy: oral language, phonological awareness, vocabulary, print awareness, letter knowledge and background knowledge and then provided more detailed information about each of these components.

Ghoting later shared information about the parent-child workshops that can be conducted and had participants work in groups to come up with ideas and ways to present these workshops. The small groups then later shared their ideas with the group at large.

Ghoting completed the presentation by sharing with participants what other libraries are doing with early literacy learning spaces.

Lunch was catered by Catered Productions.

The program concluded at 4:10.